

Events in the Livingston Area 2023

Livingston is a township in New Jersey, located just 27 miles outside of the bustling and booming New York City. Thanks to its proximity to New York City and other popular towns, Livingston is host to a fair share of events, including festivals, performances, networking events, comedy shows, and so much more. If you're in town looking for Livingston things to do, take a look at the following list of Livingston activities to get you started. There's something for everyone here in Livingston.

SUMMERFEST FOOD TRUCK FESTIVAL

Livingston's SummerFest Food Truck Festival is an exciting event that foodies in New Jersey won't want to miss. Set to take place on Sunday, June 12, 2023, from 11 a.m.-6 p.m., the festival will be held at Memorial Oval on Robert Harp Drive in Livingston, New Jersey. Admission to the event is $5, though children aged two and under are free. Visitors will have the chance to sample various delicious food from the food trucks, and a beer and wine garden will be available from 12-4 p.m. for those aged 21 and over (ID required to purchase). In addition to food and drink, the festival will feature live music and children's activities, making it a perfect day out for the whole family.

SUMMER CONCERTS

Get ready to kick off your summer with some fantastic live music! The Livingston Summer Concert Series is back for 2023 and is better than ever. Every Sunday at 7 p.m., you can head down to the Gazebo in Memorial Park for a free show that is sure to get your toes tapping. With a lineup that includes everything from tribute bands to local performers, there's something for everyone to enjoy. But don't worry if the weather turns sour; in the case of inclement weather, the concert will be moved to the Livingston High School Auditorium. So, get ready to dance the night away on the following dates: July 9 with The NJ Tenors, July 16 with Larger Than Life, July 23 for Livingston Locals Night, July 30 with The B-Street Band, and August 6 with Soul Cruisers. Take advantage of this exciting summer event!

YOUTH APPRECIATION WEEK

Livingston Township's Youth Appreciation Week, which takes place from September 12-18, is the perfect time to celebrate the town's youngest residents and their contributions to the community. The week-long series of events and celebrations are family-friendly and culminate in the highly anticipated Family Festival Day on the Oval and Bike Livingston. The event is hosted by Senior Youth & Leisure Services (SYLS) and Healthy Community Healthy Youth (HCHY). Livingston's youth are known for their dedication to making their town a better place. They prove it year after year through their involvement in various community initiatives. This event is an excellent opportunity for real estate investors to see firsthand how Livingston values its youth, making it a great place to invest in the future.

HOLIDAY EVENTS

MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

Livingston's Memorial Day Parade is a cherished annual custom that attracts both locals and tourists. This year, you are invited to join the community at Memorial Oval, situated across from Town Hall, for a Memorial Day Remembrance Ceremony, followed by the parade. This parade is a delightful display of patriotic pride. Livingston's streets are adorned with red, white, and blue decorations while a procession of floats, marching bands, and community groups move through the town. The event serves as a poignant tribute to those who have served our country and a reminder of their sacrifices. It is an exceptional opportunity to unite as a community, honor our fallen heroes, and celebrate the values that make our country great. Be sure to mark your calendars and invite your family and friends to this extraordinary occasion.

JULY 4TH CELEBRATION

The town of Livingston is getting ready for its annual Fourth of July Celebration, a delightful day full of patriotic entertainment and recreation. All events will take place on Robert Harp Drive near Memorial Oval. The day's opening ceremony, the Patriotic Ceremony, marks the beginning of an exciting day of fun and fellowship and is followed by the much-anticipated Kiwanis Swim Carnival. Adults can enjoy live music at the Beer & Wine Café while children have a blast on the rides and games. The entertainment picks up during the evening with the Main Stage Entertainment, followed by an unforgettable Fireworks Spectacular that will brighten the sky. Hunger won't be an issue, with several food trucks offering delicious meals. Everyone is invited to participate in the fun and celebrate this patriotic festivity in style.

SEPTEMBER 11TH

The 9/11 Ceremony of Remembrance at the Livingston Oval's Living Memorial Garden is an event that never fails to unite and uplift the community. Every year, residents gather to pay their respects and remember those taken on that fateful day. This solemn occasion also celebrates the town's strength and resilience in the face of adversity. With heartfelt speeches and moving performances, the ceremony honors the memories of the Livingston residents lost on 9/11 while inspiring attendees to stand together and face the future with hope. It's a touching and meaningful event that shows how even in the darkest of times, Livingston can come together and find the light.
